

HOME OFFICE & FLEXIBLE WORKING HOURS

PARKING SPACES

PUBLIC CONNECTION

FURTHER EDUCATION & CAREER

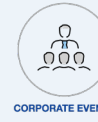

COLLEGIAL ENVIRONMENT

HEALTH & FITNESS OFFERS

LUNCH ALLOWANCE & FRUITS

CORPORATE EVENTS

Database Engineer (m/f/d)

Are you striving for top performance and want to join a top team?

Then you are right with us!

We value your skills and offer you the opportunity to develop with us.

A quick start in an attractive and innovative working environment, as well as a varied range of tasks in a good team is guaranteed.

Your tasks

- Analysis and optimization of databases with large amounts of data
- Support of product development in the implementation of efficient read/write strategies
- Consulting in the conception and dimensioning of database installations (redundancies, clustering)
- Support of the project teams with database specific agendas

Qualifications

- Very good SQL, T-SQL knowledge
- Ideally experience in the administration of Microsoft SQL Server
- Scripting experience is an advantage
- Communicative personality
- Interest in personal development

What you get

- A responsible, interesting and varied area of responsibility that motivates you to achieve top performance
- A modern, inspiring and appreciative working environment as well as exciting projects
- Working independently and responsibly
- Targeted training that prepares you for your new challenge
- A personal mentor and helpful colleagues next door
- Professional and personal training and further education programs tailored to you
- Flat hierarchy and collegial environment
- Regular team events
- Excellent public connections
- „Klimaticket“ Styria / free parking space
- Home office and flexible working hours
- Food allowance and fresh fruit
- Various health and fitness offers

Place of employment: Graz (A)

Annual gross salary according to the metal trade collective agreement:

The actual salary depends on your experience and your qualifications.

Usually the salary for this position is € 50.400,- yearly. (at 38,5 hours per week).

Become a part of our future - apply now!